I have to put on my Winter clothes.
Rain and sleet and frost and snow,
The trees all dance as the North wind blows.

A nice thick hat to protect my head,
I won't spend all day in bed.

It's yellow, purple, white and blue and red.

Jumping into puddles, that's so neat.

My thick, warm socks up to my knees,
Ha! Ha! Jack Frost can't get to me.

I have to put on my Winter clothes.
A nice, thick jumper under my coat,
Yes! Yes ! That will protect my throat.

I wear my gloves to protect my hands,
So I can build a big Snowman.

I'm wearing all my Winter clothes.
